

Gestures | A Group Show

'Gestures' brings together artists united by a tactile sensitivity to line, repetition, and the boundless potential of mark-making - those who let brushstrokes speak their own language. From graphic, hard-edged contours to looping, fluid threads, mark-making sits at the core of visual expression here. With a shared vocabulary, the works in this exhibition speak to each other across the walls, creating an engaging conversation of movement, texture, and aesthetic logic. 'Gestures' highlights work that foregrounds structure, rhythm, and the seductive pull of line. Participating artists include:
